CONNECTION TO LOCAL OR STATE STANDARDS

(Use here relevant content, information literacy, and technology standards.)
ILACC#20: Use text features and search tools (e.g., key words, sidebars, hyperlinks) to locate information relevant to a given topic quickly and efficiently.
ILACC#22: Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.
ILACC#26: Develop the topic with facts, definitions, and details.

OVERVIEW:

This lesson will be the first lesson of an eight-day introductory unit on informational writing. In third grade, the concept of using external reliable sources to help to research an informational topic becomes a new focus for students. In this lesson, the students will be introduced to GALILEO for Kids to help them to research their given topic. Students will also learn about the importance of organizing the information that they find into a pre-writing web. This will help them to quickly research areas that they do not have information on and will set up the writing structure for their future five-paragraph essay.

FINAL PRODUCT:

This final product, for this first lesson, will be to have a completed pre-writing web containing information found using GALILEO for Kids. Their ultimate final product at the completion of the unit will be a five-paragraph writing containing research put into the pre-writing web.
